

Symbol

Symbolism-colors

White---purity, righteousness, exaltation

Black---evil; famine; darkness

Red---sins, bloodshed

Scarlet---royalty

Blue---heaven, godliness, remembering and keeping God's commandments

Silver---of worth, but less than gold

Green---life; nature

Gold---the best,
exaltation

Amber---sun, light, divine glory

Red and White in fairy tales

When a character is in white it is Virginal-think wedding dress.

When a character is is red, or touched by red, it signified that that person has gone through puberty/menstruation and is entering womanhood
-a dangerous time.

Motif

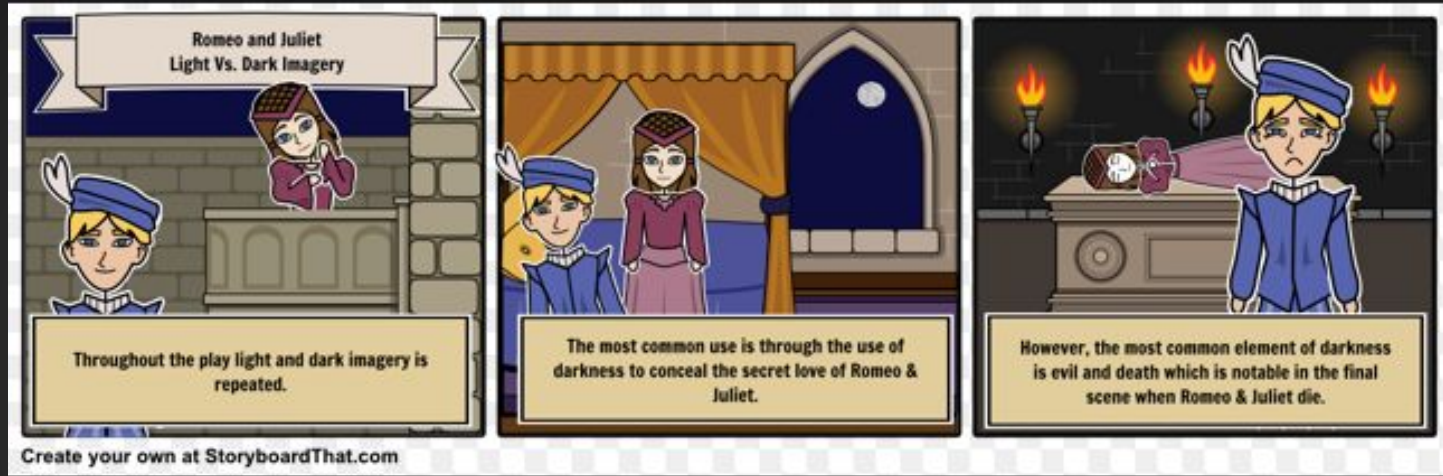

Theme

Pattern

or

Symbol

that repeats over and over and over and...

So, to keep it straight white horse-symbol color white-motif

The Giving Tree--Allegory

because the entire work (not just the symbols, motifs and allusions) can be seen as another story.

allusion

“He’s my Prince Charming”--Allusion

